CLOAKROOM

Guests are invited to use the exquisite 1930s cloakroom, an authentic gem of the era, where every detail whispers of vintage refinement.

VESTIBULES

The image shows a sophisticated lounge or bar area. In the center is a large, modular brown sofa with several black and brown cushions. In front of the sofa are two small, round wooden tables, each with a black metal base. To the left, there are two black chairs. The background features a large, ornate metal screen with a repeating geometric pattern. The ceiling is dark with decorative elements. The overall lighting is warm and ambient. The word 'VESTIBULES' is written in large, bold, yellow capital letters across the middle of the image.

Exuding sophistication and charm, the Vestibules effortlessly transform into three distinct spaces with the sweep of ornate dividing doors.

Rich red drapes adorn the columns, and the air is perfumed with the heady scent of candied fruits and pomanders. As laughter swirls and glasses clink, guests indulge in frosted Rossinis, lost in the enchantment of the evening.

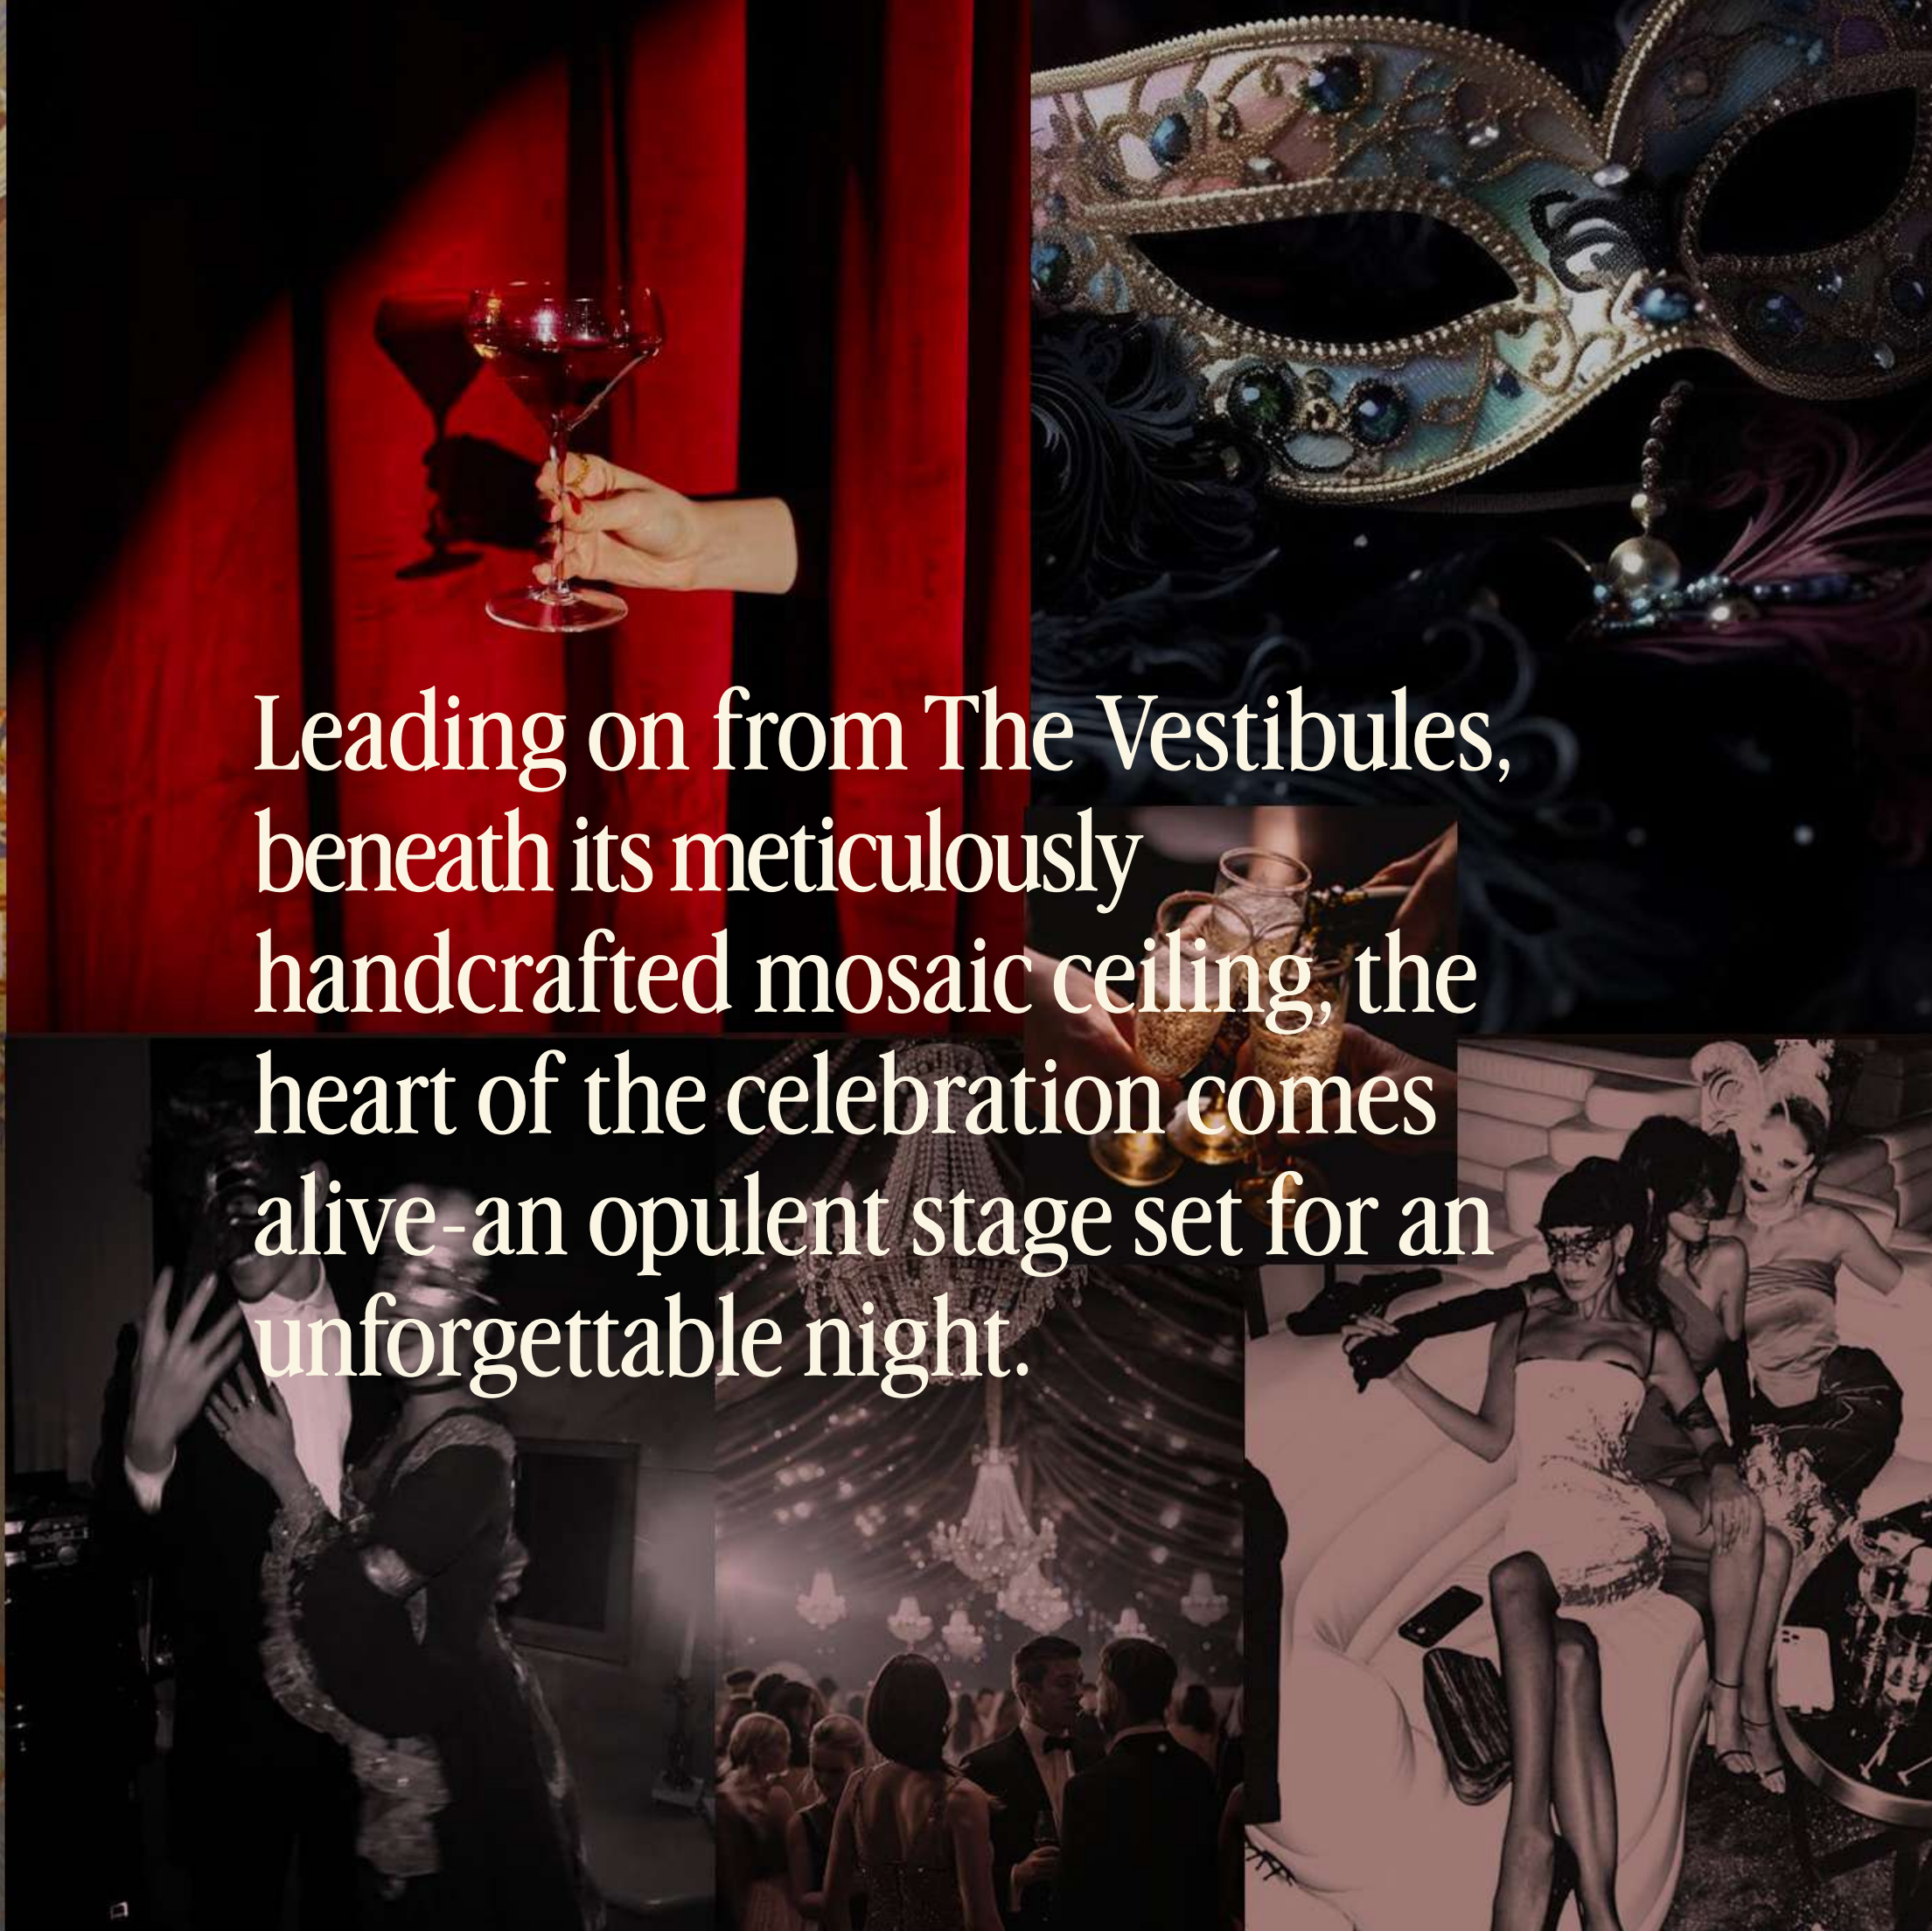

A photograph of a grand bar stand in a theater lobby. The bar is a semi-circular structure with a black metal frame and glass panels. It is filled with various glasses, including champagne flutes and wine glasses, and a large bouquet of white flowers. Behind the bar, a man in a red velvet jacket is visible. The bar is set against a backdrop of large red velvet curtains. To the left of the bar, there is a tall, gold-colored Christmas tree. The floor is made of light-colored tiles with a geometric pattern. The ceiling is ornate with gold-colored details. The overall atmosphere is festive and elegant.

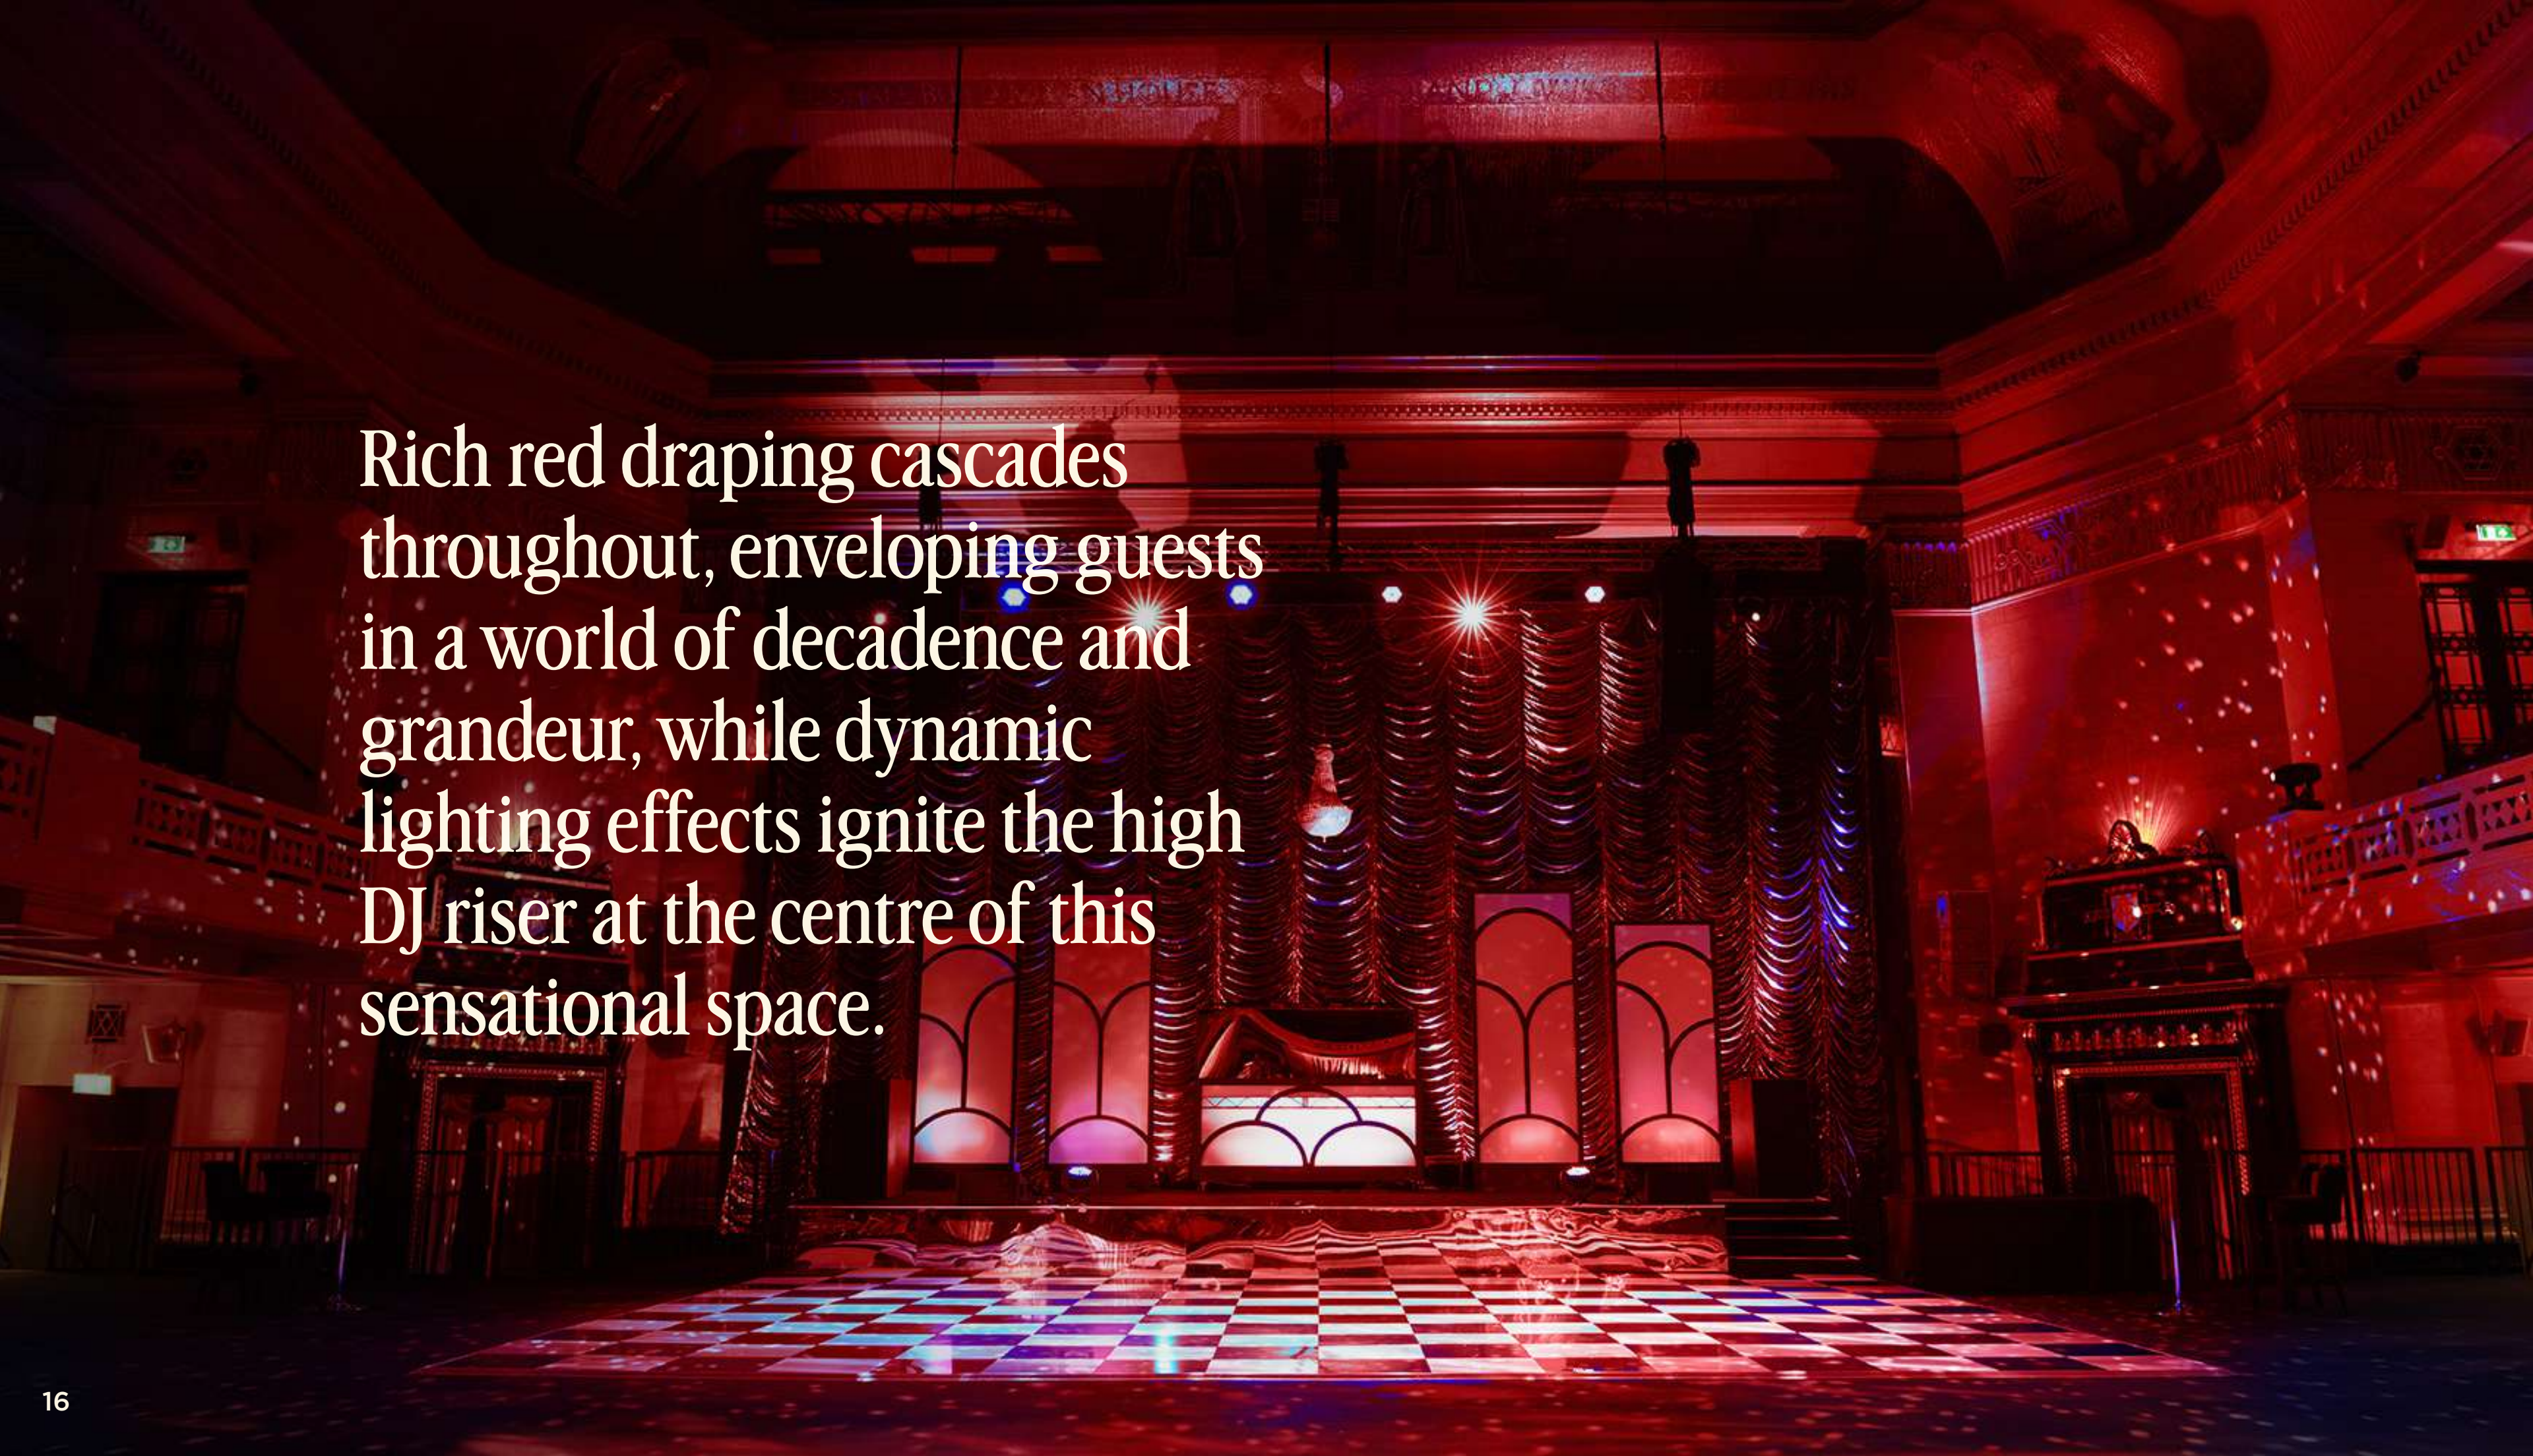

At the heart of the revelry,
a grand bar stand beneath glistening chandeliers, their light shimmering over plush velvet banquettes and elegant poseur tables.

THE GRAND TEMPLE

Leading on from The Vestibules, beneath its meticulously handcrafted mosaic ceiling, the heart of the celebration comes alive-an opulent stage set for an unforgettable night.

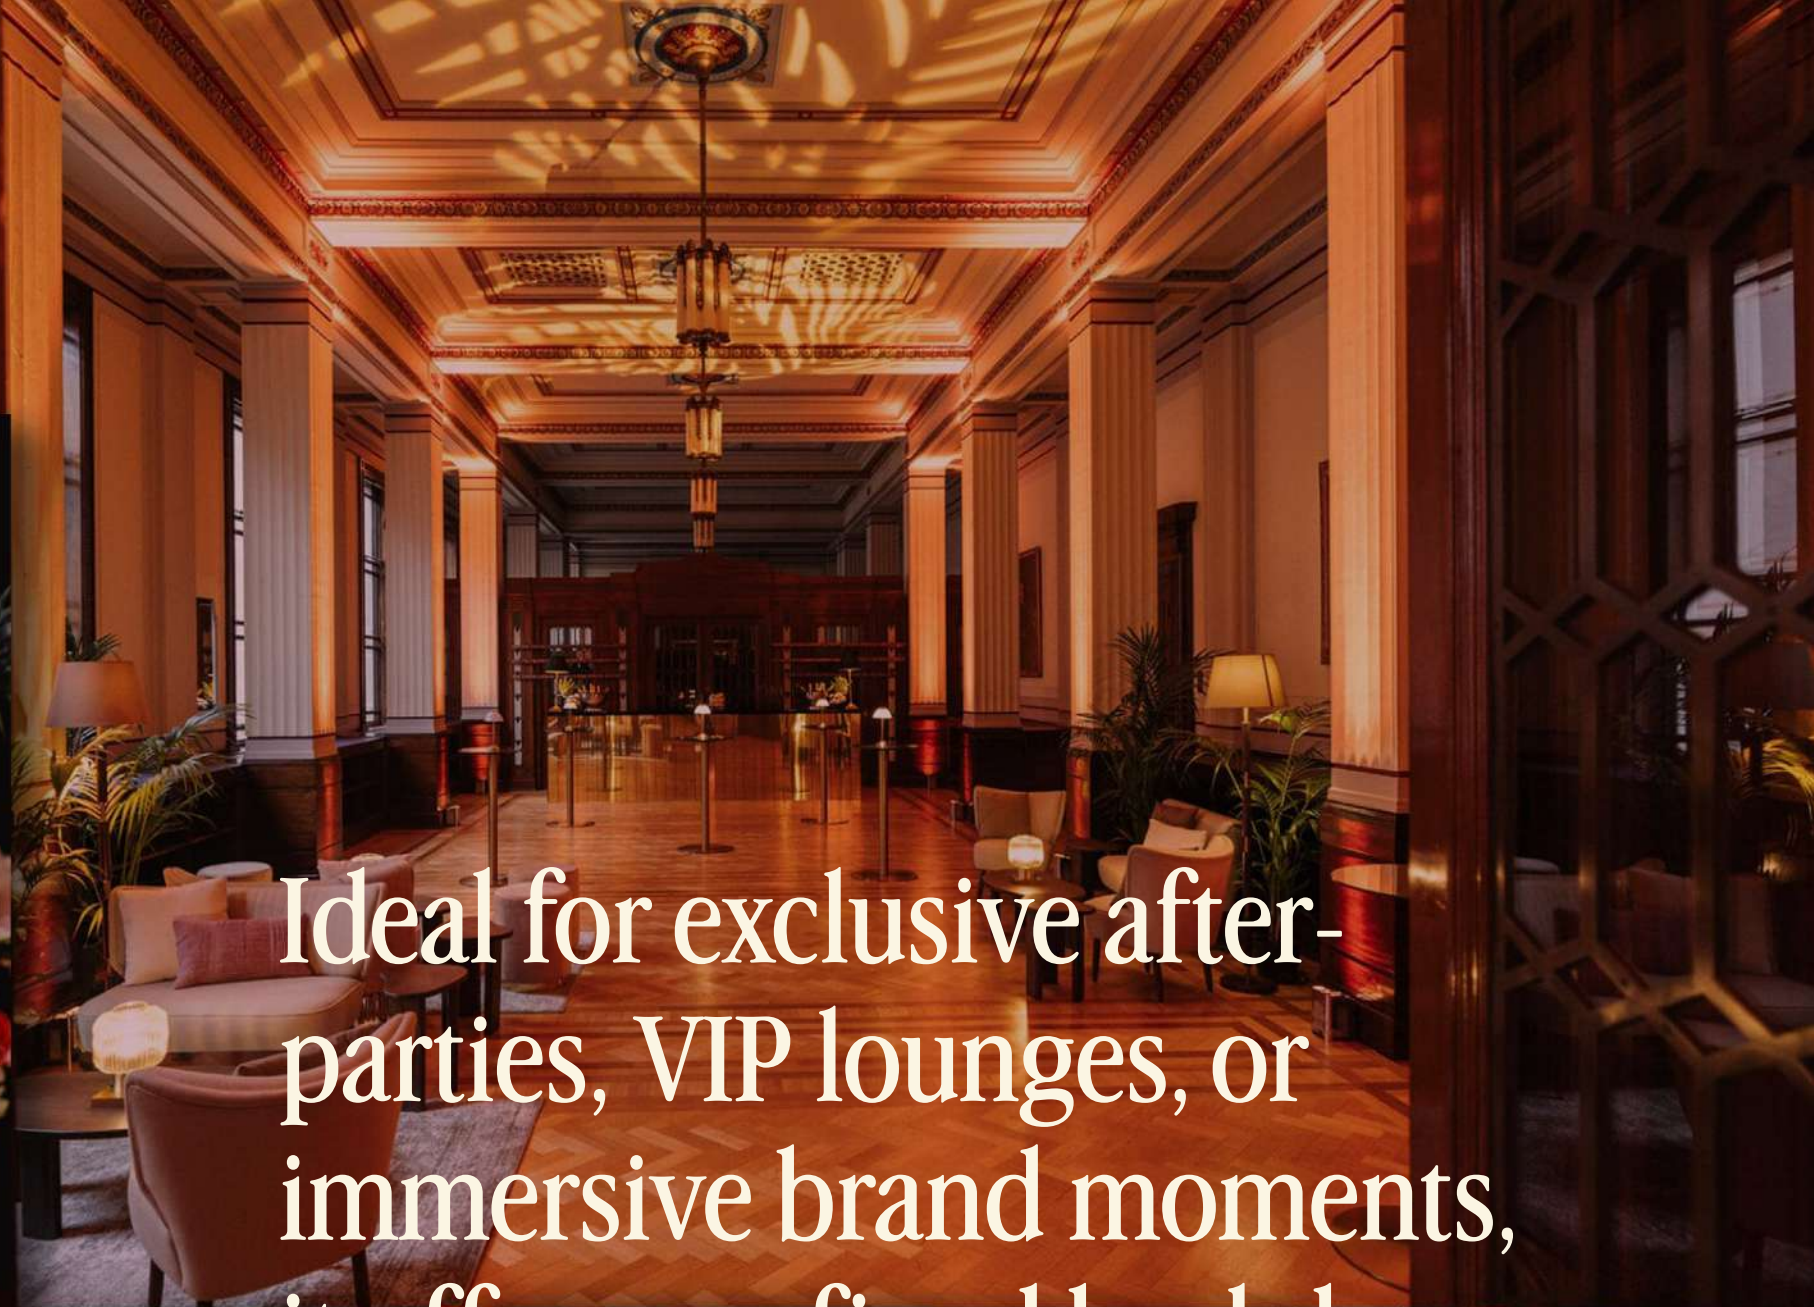

Rich red draping cascades throughout, enveloping guests in a world of decadence and grandeur, while dynamic lighting effects ignite the high DJ riser at the centre of this sensational space.

THE LONG ROOM

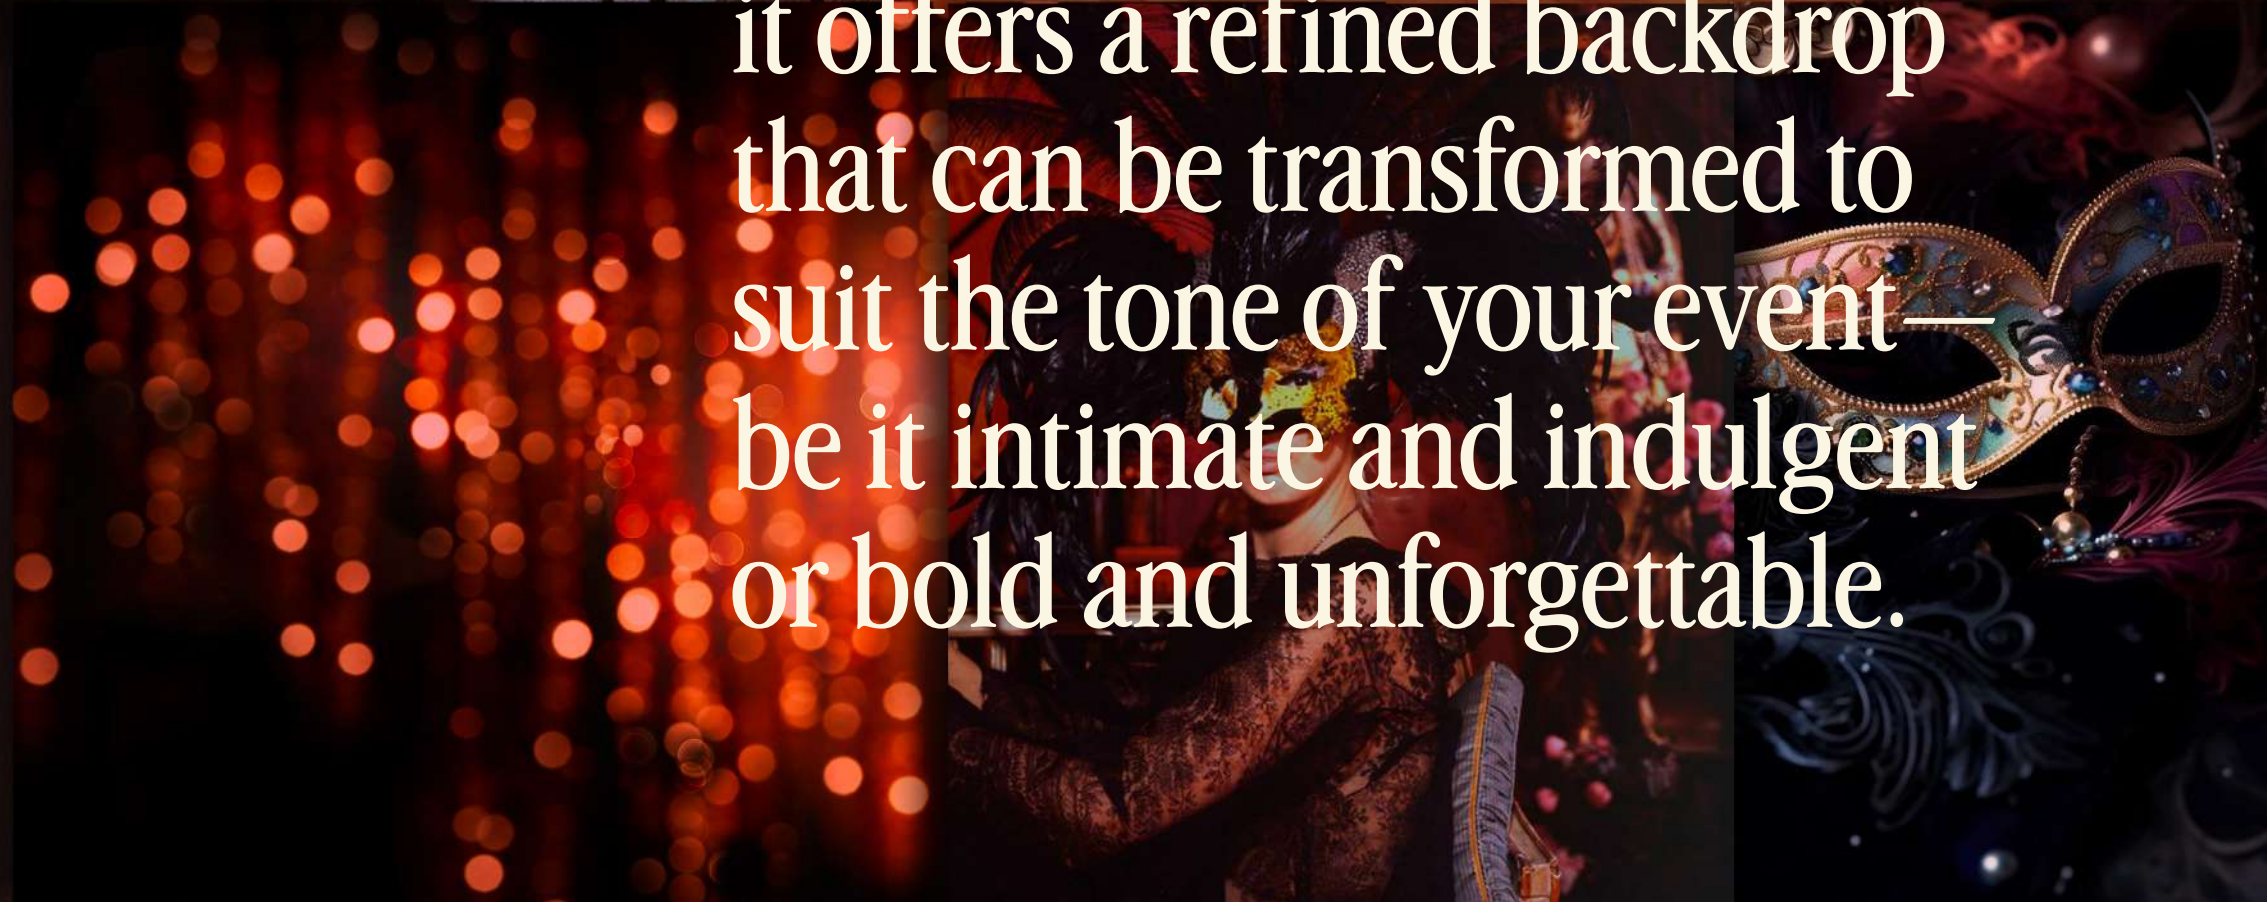

The image shows the interior of a grand, historic room, likely a library or a formal hall. The room is characterized by its high, vaulted ceiling with intricate architectural details and a series of large, fluted columns that support the structure. The walls are lined with dark wood paneling and built-in bookshelves filled with books. The floor is made of polished wood, reflecting the warm, ambient lighting. In the foreground, several small, round tables with brass bases and black tops are arranged, each accompanied by a small lamp with a white shade. The overall atmosphere is one of elegance and historical significance.

Adjoining The Grand Temple,
The Long Room is a lavish and adaptable space that marries Art Deco elegance with contemporary flair.

Ideal for exclusive after-parties, VIP lounges, or immersive brand moments, it offers a refined backdrop that can be transformed to suit the tone of your event—be it intimate and indulgent or bold and unforgettable.
